

2017 ISME Program
January 25-27, 2017 Washington, D.C.

“ETHICS & MILITARY PROFESSIONALISM: CYBER WAR AND OTHER CONFLICTS”

Wednesday 25 January

1800-1930 Meeting Registration and Welcoming Reception (Hilton Doubletree—Crystal City)

Thursday 26 January

0800 ISME Registration (Hilton Doubletree—Crystal City)

0845 Opening Session -- Welcome (George Lucas, President, ISME)

0900-1000 Keynote Address: Dr. Randall R. Dipert, C.S. Peirce Professor of Philosophy, University of Buffalo

"Cyberwarfare, the Hard Problems: Deterrence, Retaliation, Escalation and International Agreements"

1030-1200 Plenary Panel: “National Science Foundation Project on Ethics and Cyber Warfare”

Chair: Fritz Allhoff, Western Michigan University

Participants: Ryan Jenkins, Cal-State Poly University; Adam Henschke, Australian National University (Canberra); Jonathan Milgrim, Western Michigan University; Shannon Brandt Ford, Australian National University (Canberra)

1200-1330 No-Host Lunch

1330-1530 Concurrent Session I

Psychologists and Professionalism in the Military	Changing Cyber Norms	New Directions
Chair:	Chair: Shannon French	Chair: Harry Jones
Jean Maria Arrigo and Dutch Franz on The Compromise of Military and Psychological Ethics	David Whetham on Whether Traditional Just War Concepts Can Cope with the Changing Character of War	Antonia Oesterle on Professionalizing the Discipline of Anthropology
Kernan Manion on The DOD, Personnel Contractors, and Medical Professional Contractees	Danielle Lupton and Valerie Morkevičius on Violence, Coercion, and Jus ad Vim	Scott Parsons on Whether the Ethics of Care Will Affect the Future of Just War Theory
Stephen Soldz on Interrogating the Ethics of Operational Psychology		Paolo Tripodi on Behavioral Ethics

2017 ISME Program
January 25-27, 2017 Washington, D.C.

“ETHICS & MILITARY PROFESSIONALISM: CYBER WAR AND OTHER CONFLICTS”

1545-1745      Concurrent Sessions II

The Moral, Spiritual, and Psychological Impacts of War on the Warrior	Issues in Jus post Bellum	Resiliency, Honor, and Lying
Chair: David Perry Ed Barrett on Moral Injury and the Doctrine of Double Effect Ian Fishback on Moral Injury from Institutionalized U.S. Torture Michael Flynn on Moral Injury and a Genealogy of Trauma Jesse Kirkpatrick on Moral Injury, Jus ad Bellum, and Revisionist Just War Theory	Chair: Jovana Davidovich on Refugees and Just War Theory Michael Growden on The Normative Grounds for Post-War Obligation John Lango on How a Defeated Adversary Should Be Occupied	Chair: Scott Parsons Charles Allen on Building Ethical Resiliency Among Senior Military Officers Kenneth McDonald and Justin M. Anderson on Honor, the Honorable, &amp; Military Codes of Honor Harry Jones on Dishonesty, Character, and the Institutional Army

1830-2030      Annual ISME Reception and Banquet

Speaker: COL James Cook, Ph.D

Chair, Department of Philosophy, U.S. Air Force Academy

INAUGURAL PRESENTATION OF THE Brig. Gen. MALHAM WAKIN FOUNDER’S AWARD

Recipient: COL Don Snider, Ph.D. (U.S. Army, retired)

2017 ISME Program
January 25-27, 2017 Washington, D.C.

“ETHICS & MILITARY PROFESSIONALISM: CYBER WAR AND OTHER CONFLICTS”

Friday 27 January

0900-1030 Plenary Panel: Ethics & Cyber Warfare (Oxford UP, 2017)

Chair: Michael Gross, University of Haifa

Speakers: Valerie Morkevičius, Colgate University; Fritz Allhoff, Western Michigan University

Response by the Author

1100-1230 Concurrent Sessions III

Issues in Just War Theory	Moral Injury	Enhancement and Neuroscience
Chair:	Chair:	Chair:
Ian Fishback on Command Responsibility, Military Necessity, and the Jus ad Bellum/Jus in Bello Distinction	David Barnes on Moral Injury and Meaning-Making	Jean-Francois Caron on the Ethics of Soldiers’ Enhancement
John Madden on Uncertainty and the Ethics of Conflict	Antonio Garcia on Moral Injury	Nicholas G. Evans and Aerin Commins on the Greenwall Foundation Project on Neuroscience and National Security

1230-1400 Lunch Break

1400-1530 Concurrent Sessions IV

Ethics of Autonomous Weapons Systems	Issues of Jus ad Bellum	Cyber-Espionage
Chair: Emmanuel Goffi	Chair:	Chair:
Joseph Chapa on Structuring the Ethics of Autonomous Weapons	Jordy Rochelau on Legitimate Authority as a Jus ad Bellum Condition	Shannon Ford on Cyberespionage and the Problem of Aggregated Small Harms
Timothy Mallard on The Rise and Impact of Autonomous Warfare Systems	Adam Betz on A Critique of McMahan’s Jus ad Bellum Court of Scholars.	Jonathan Trerise on Just Espionage Theory

1530-1600 Coffee Break

2017 ISME Program
January 25-27, 2017 Washington, D.C.

“ETHICS & MILITARY PROFESSIONALISM: CYBER WAR AND OTHER CONFLICTS”

1600-1730      Concurrent Sessions V

Issues in Targeting	Issue of Character	Issue of Responsibility
Chair:  Mitt Regan on Counterterrorism, Lethal Force, and Network Analysis  Ronald E. Hustwit on the Targeting of Terrorists	Chair: Nikki Coleman  Pauline Kaurin on Obedience as a Military Virtue  Richard L. Wilson on Honor, Courage, and Valor Among Cyber Warriors	Chair:  Marc LiVecche on Civilian Responsibilities  Jan Peter van Bruggen on whether Moral Responsibility Can Be Flexible Enough for the Age of Cyber Warfare

1745-1830      ISME Annual Business Meeting/Adjournment

1830              No-Host Dinner in Washington, D.C.