Wednesday 25 January

1800-1930 Meeting Registration and Welcoming Reception (Hilton Doubletree—Crystal City)

Thursday 26 January

0800 ISME Registration (Hilton Doubletree—Crystal City)

0845 Opening Session -- Welcome (George Lucas, President, ISME)

0900-1000 Keynote Address: Dr. Randall R. Dipert, C.S. Peirce Professor of Philosophy, University of Buffalo

"Cyberwarfare, the Hard Problems: Deterrence, Retaliation, Escalation and International Agreements"

1030-1200 Plenary Panel: “National Science Foundation Project on Ethics and Cyber Warfare”

Chair: Fritz Allhoff, Western Michigan University

Participants: Ryan Jenkins, Cal-State Poly University; Adam Henschke, Australian National University (Canberra); Jonathan Milgrim, Western Michigan University; Shannon Brandt Ford, Australian National University (Canberra)

1200-1330 No-Host Lunch

1330-1530 Concurrent Session I

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Psychologists and Professionalism in the Military</th>
<th>Changing Cyber Norms</th>
<th>New Directions</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Chair: Jean Maria Arrigo and Dutch Franz on The Compromise of Military and Psychological Ethics</td>
<td>Chair: Shannon French</td>
<td>Chair: Harry Jones</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kernan Manion on The DOD, Personnel Contractors, and Medical Professional Contractees</td>
<td>David Whetham on Whether Traditional Just War Concepts Can Cope with the Changing Character of War</td>
<td>Antonia Oesterle on Professionalizing the Discipline of Anthropology</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stephen Soldz on Interrogating the Ethics of Operational Psychology</td>
<td>Danielle Lupton and Valerie Morkevičius on Violence, Coercion, and Jus ad Vim</td>
<td>Scott Parsons on Whether the Ethics of Care Will Affect the Future of Just War Theory</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Paolo Tripodi on Behavioral Ethics</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
The Moral, Spiritual, and Psychological Impacts of War on the Warrior

Chair: David Perry
- Ed Barrett on Moral Injury and the Doctrine of Double Effect
- Ian Fishback on Moral Injury from Institutionalized U.S. Torture
- Michael Flynn on Moral Injury and a Genealogy of Trauma
- Jesse Kirkpatrick on Moral Injury, Jus ad Bellum, and Revisionist Just War Theory

Issues in Jus post Bellum

Chair: Jovana Davidovich
- Michael Growden on The Normative Grounds for Post-War Obligation
- John Lango on How a Defeated Adversary Should Be Occupied

Resiliency, Honor, and Lying

Chair: Scott Parsons
- Charles Allen on Building Ethical Resiliency Among Senior Military Officers
- Kenneth McDonald and Justin M. Anderson on Honor, the Honorable, & Military Codes of Honor
- Harry Jones on Dishonesty, Character, and the Institutional Army

Annual ISME Reception and Banquet

Speaker: COL James Cook, Ph.D

Chair, Department of Philosophy, U.S. Air Force Academy

INAUGURAL PRESENTATION OF THE Brig. Gen. MALHAM WAKIN FOUNDER'S AWARD

Recipient: COL Don Snider, Ph.D. (U.S. Army, retired)
2017 ISME Program
“ETHICS & MILITARY PROFESSIONALISM: CYBER WAR AND OTHER CONFLICTS”

Friday 27 January

             Chair: Michael Gross, University of Haifa
             Speakers: Valerie Morkevičius, Colgate University; Fritz Allhoff, Western Michigan University
             Response by the Author

1100-1230  Concurrent Sessions III

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Issues in Just War Theory</th>
<th>Moral Injury</th>
<th>Enhancement and Neuroscience</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Chair:</td>
<td>Chair:</td>
<td>Chair:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>John Madden on Uncertainty and the Ethics of Conflict</td>
<td>Antonio Garcia on Moral Injury</td>
<td>Nicholas G. Evans and Aerin Commins on the Greenwall Foundation Project on Neuroscience and National Security</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1230-1400  Lunch Break

1400-1530  Concurrent Sessions IV

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Ethics of Autonomous Weapons Systems</th>
<th>Issues of Jus ad Bellum</th>
<th>Cyber-Espionage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Chair:</td>
<td>Chair:</td>
<td>Chair:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Emmanuel Goffi</td>
<td>Jordy Rochelau on Legitimate Authority as a Jus ad Bellum Condition</td>
<td>Shannon Ford on Cyberespionage and the Problem of Aggregated Small Harms</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Joseph Chapa on Structuring the Ethics of Autonomous Weapons</td>
<td>Adam Betz on A Critique of McMahan’s Jus ad Bellum Court of Scholars.</td>
<td>Jonathan Trerise on Just Espionage Theory</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Timothy Mallard on The Rise and Impact of Autonomous Warfare Systems</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1530-1600  Coffee Break
2017 ISME Program
“ETHICS & MILITARY PROFESSIONALISM: CYBER WAR AND OTHER CONFLICTS”

1600-1730  Concurrent Sessions V

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Issues in Targeting</th>
<th>Issue of Character</th>
<th>Issue of Responsibility</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Chair: Mitt Regan on Counterterrorism, Lethal Force, and Network Analysis
Ronald E. Hustwit on the Targeting of Terrorists | Chair: Nikki Coleman
Pauline Kaurin on Obedience as a Military Virtue
Richard L. Wilson on Honor, Courage, and Valor Among Cyber Warriors | Chair: Marc LiVecche on Civilian Responsibilities
Jan Peter van Bruggen on whether Moral Responsibility Can Be Flexible Enough for the Age of Cyber Warfare |

1745-1830  ISME Annual Business Meeting/Adjournment

1830  No-Host Dinner in Washington, D.C.